

Do You See the Nations?

A. Whipple

Voice

$\text{♩} = 65$

E E2 E E2

Sure - ly there is glo - ry far a - bove the hea - vens, an Dai - ly come the scof - fers, mock - ing from the roof - tops,
 O, that You would tear back all the skies be - tween us,

3 E E2 A

al - tar where the ga - la - xies bow down,
 "Where is He whose blood you way was shed?"
 though such fire and dark - ness hide Your face.

5 E E2 E E2

Your name sung by an - gels, sym - pho - nies of rev' - rence,
 Still the Church - 's bride - groom is a Man of Sor - rows,
 For Your hand is ju - stice and Your heart for - give - ness.

7 E E2 A C#m Bsus

coun - tries where the lost be - come the found. (But) Do You see the na - tions weep - ing for the sheep who won't be led.
 Your love is a line Gol - go - tha traced.

10 E/G# F#m7(4) C#m Bsus F#m7(4)

rag - ing in their an - ger? Do You hear the cla - mor drown - ing out Your praise?

13 C#m Bsus E/G# F#m7(4) C#m D

Are we still Your peo - ple, cho - sen by Your mer - cy, bro - thers, si - sters, one be - fore Your face?

16 A